OWNERS WIN CASE Will Not Have to Pay Any Other Than State Tax-State Has 1045 Machines Rendered for Taxes. Santa Fe, N. M. Feb. 5.—Automobil-ists are jubilant over the decision in the district court of the first judicial district by judge E. C. Abbott to the ef-fect that automobile owners having paid the state nuto license tax of figwith $1 extra for number plate, cannot be further taxed by the municipalities in which they live and run their cars.

The case was brought by Dr. J. A. Rolls, of Santa Fe, who was atrested by the city marshal for refusal to pay his city license. Dr. Rolls had the united backing of the auto owners of Santa Fe.

Considerable opposition developed in several countles to paying the state tax imposed by the legislature at its session last spring and effective. Its session last spring and effective October 1. However, many did pay, and a published notice by the secretary of state that he would bring suit to enforce the collection of the tax, brought in practically everyone else, so that now with 1015 attemption. else, so that now with 1045 automobiles returned fo riaxation in the state, auto-dicenses have been issued to 954 own-

MAN HELD TO GRAND JURY
Two examining trials were conducted Tuesday afternoon by justice of the peace E. B. McClintock. Martin Jimenez aged il years, who was charged with the murder of Geronimo Valensuela, aged 18, was held to the grand jury on that charge, being released on his own recognizance.

Valenzuela died as the result of a wound inflicted by a bullet from a .22 riffle in the hands of Jimenez. The shooting, it is claimed, was accidental.

Marvin Hale, who was arrested after it was alleged he entered a cafe on Stanton street, was given a preliminary hearing on a burglary charge. In his voluntery statement to justice MeClintock the defendant said that he went into the place because he was laungry, and only intended to get something to eat. He was bound over to the grand jury and his bond placed at 1500.

MRS, CORA FOX FIXED

MRS. CORA FOX FINED ON A VAGRANCY CHARGE Mrs. Cora Fox. of Los Angeles, Cal., who figured in the indictment charging Dr. H. Earl Coger, "a beauty expert, from Los Angeles, with forgery, was fined $45 Wednesday morning in the corporation court on a charge of wagrancy.

corporation court on a charge of vagrancy.

Mrs. Pox. two weeks ago, was defendant in the justice court on a charge of assault preferred against her by the doctor. She claimed in the trial that she called on Dr. Coger to got him to pay back some money which she said he owed her. She was acquitted on that charge. Sergeant Lon Garner stated Wednesday morning that Mrs. Pox s mother sent her $15, and that accetal nights ago Mrs. Fox and the doctor went over to Justes together and played it off at the keno tables. Mrs. Fox denied that, Dr. Coger has been released on a $750 bond, pending his trial on the indicatment against him.
